We work with small-scale farmers from around the world who are taking back the food system. Through forming Authentic Fair Trade relationships with these producers, Equal Exchange is bringing the success of Fair Trade to new markets.

WORKER OWNED CO-OPERATIVE

Founded in 1986, Equal Exchange is a worker-owned co-op. We partner with small farmer co-ops to change existing power structures in the food system, and bring you delicious, fairly traded foods.

FARMER PARTNERS

CREPAIMASUL CO-OP

Organic Cashews · Honduras

Crepaimasul is located in southern Honduras, along the border of El Salvador and Nicaragua. The 60-member co-operative was formed in the 1970s as part of a government agrarian reform program. Twenty years later, the co-op was given cashew trees in an effort to reforest the region. Today, they are successfully exporting their cashews to the U.S.

FAIR TRADE ALLIANCE KERALA

Organic Cashews · India

Founded in 2006 to address the challenges with inconsistent prices in the marketplace, Fair Trade Alliance Kerala has 4,500 members. Social premiums and community development project initiatives include school facilities, drinking water programs, elephant-friendly fencing to avoid crop damage, and sustainable weed management.

BURROUGHS FAMILY FARMS

Organic Almonds · California, USA

This family farm aims to produce the cleanest and most delicious foods in a way that protects and enhances the soil, air, water, and the environment in which we live. They work hard to use all resources carefully and wisely and to farm systematically while integrating all aspects of their farming operations. The Burrough's are committed to sustain family farming and promote the preservation of quality farmland in California.

NEW COMMUNITIES

Pecans · Georgia, USA

New Communities is a grassroots organization that has worked for over 40 years to empower African American families in Southwest Georgia and to advocate for social justice. Born out of the Civil Rights Movement, New Communities was founded in 1969 as a farm collective to provide a safe haven for black farmers, and became one of the original models for community land trusts in the United States.

GEBANA AFRIQUE

Organic Mangoes & Cashews
Burkina Faso

Gebana Afrique is a Fair Trade organization that purchases organic mangoes from 17 different rural co-operatives and associations in the South of Burkina Faso. Women serve as the majority of the workforce and Fair Trade social premiums have benefited the entire community through adult literacy classes, new water sources, bicycle purchases, and cereal banks.

FRUANDES

Organic Mangoes · Colombia

This organization was founded to highlight small-scale farmers in the supply chain and to create sustainable, long term opportunities with stable incomes. With over 350 families of small-scale farmers, their mission is "to generate an ecosystem of social, human, and environmental well-being..."

MI FRUTA CO-OP

Raisins · Chile

Mi Fruta formed in 2008 as the only Fair Trade raisin co-op in Chile, with 28 members. The average size of each farm is 10-15 acres, diversified with multiple grape varieties and even walnuts. Fair Trade premiums have gone to projects such as using renewable energy for drying grapes, reclaiming depleted land through soil reconstruction, and the first steps toward organic farming for members.
